How fees are calculated

Income

Fees are based on individual or joint annual gross (before tax) income, depending on the service. We will discuss fees with you before your first appointment with us.

Charges per session

Sessions are charged based on the time booked, with a minimum charge of one hour. Additional time is charged in half-hour increments.

Cancellation fees

You won't be charged for cancelling or rescheduling an appointment if you give at least 24 hours' notice (one working day). Weekends, public holidays and centre closure days are not included in this notice period.

If less than 24 hours' notice is given, a fee equal to 50% of the appointment fee will be charged, and payable by the client or clients cancelling the appointment. This helps us to provide clients with timely access to available appointments.

Evening appointments

An additional $10 per hour will be charged for appointments starting at 5pm or later.

Drafting of documents

Documents drafted outside of scheduled family dispute resolution sessions may incur an additional fee.

First Nations clients

First Nations clients are not required to pay fees in line with our First Nations Statement of Commitment.

We pay respect to First Nations Peoples of Victoria as the Traditional Owners and Custodians of the lands and waterways. We acknowledge the pain caused by colonisation including disconnection from land, loss of life and freedom, and the forced removal of children.
