Relationships Australia resource booklets

Relationships AUSTRALIA · VIC

Women and separation—Managing new horizons

Useful information and resources for women going through separation.

Share the care—Parenting plan

A tool to help separating parents to draw up a written agreement covering practical issues of parental responsibility.

Safe from violence—A guide for women who are separating or leaving a relationship

Information, resources and services to help women affected by family violence.

A fair share—Negotiating your property settlement

Useful information about dividing up property and finances after separation.

Men and separation—Navigating the future

Useful information and resources for men going through separation.

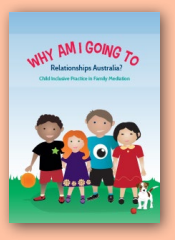

What about the children?

Helps parents to support their children through the process of separation.

Renovate your relationship—A manual for men

Provides 13 tools to help men with the practical side of relationship maintenance.

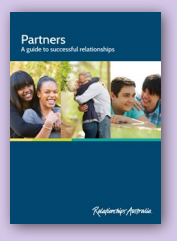

Why am I going to Relationships Australia?

Helps children to understand what happens in child-inclusive family mediation.

On being a dad

Supports fathers, regardless of their parenting situation, to find their own path to being a dad.

Partners—A guide to successful relationships

Information and tips to help couples seeking to build a successful relationship.

Download your free copy today

Visit rav.org.au/booklets or scan the QR code.

To request a printed copy, please email reception@rav.org.au or call (03) 8573 2222.

(26022a)